CONSIGNMENT AGREEMENT - 2006

_____ (the Artist) and Frank Bette Center for the Arts (FBCA, the Gallery) agree to the following terms of consignment.

Artworks are consigned to FBCA for sale at the retail price stated by the artist. FBCA shall pay to the Artist, within thirty-one (31) days after the close of an exhibit, the retail price of the artwork, less FBCA commission on sales. FBCA pays sales tax on all gallery sales.

Retail price may not be changed by FBCA without the Artist's permission. Consigned works may not be removed from the Gallery for purposes of rental, installment sales or on approval with a potential purchaser without the Artist's permission.

The Artist agrees to images of the exhibited artwork being used, with appropriate credit of artist name, for promotional purposes by FBCA in print media and/or on the FBCA website.

The Artist reserves title to the consigned works until the artwork is sold and the Artist is paid. Title shall not be subject to claim by any creditor of the Gallery. If the Gallery becomes bankrupt or insolvent, all consigned artworks shall be returned to the Artist.

The Artist retains copyrights of artwork. Reproduction rights shall not be sold, except under a separate agreement with the Artist.

In consideration of FBCA showing work of the artist, artist releases from liability FBCA, their members, officers, employees, contractors and volunteers for any aspect of the handling, including damage to the artwork. Artist understands that FBCA does not insure the artwork consigned to FBCA and takes personal responsibility for insuring artwork on their own.

FBCA readily refers patrons to exhibiting artists to view artwork and/or for commission work. Artist agrees to pay FBCA a referral fee of 35% of any sale generated from a referral.
