

Time to Tangle Meet-Up

Bring your pens, paper and sketchbooks or what ever else you have managed to tangle on or wish to tangle on.

I will bring blank greeting cards to share in case you would like to make a Valentines Day card.

There is no charge to come. However, if you would like to make a cash donation to Frank Bette Center for the Arts for allowing us to use the space (they are a non-profit) I am sure they would be highly appreciative.

Tuesday, February 7 from 6pm - 8pm

Frank Bette Center for the Arts, Alameda

Please enter through the red door that is on Lincoln Street. We will meet upstairs.

See you soon,

Grace Mendez
