I'm committed... are you?

Your donation makes YOU a critical player in the survival of an always improving and ever-more-dynamic effort to bring about positive social change through creativity and the arts.

Are you on my team? Yes, no, maybe? Where do you stand?

We've got plans so lets get to work!

Let me know if you want to get creative.

60

On November 28 that will be my age! Woo hoo! I'm proud to make it all the way to 60. Getting older means being free to do important stuff and be more genuine!

I do love getting older, but I don't usually pay any attention to my birthdays. This year is different. I want something.

I want you to Support Our Survival.

What I want for my 60th birthday is to Unleash Creativity!

here's an easy idea...

Thank You Very Much!

"Pass the Hat" for Frank Bette Center!

Do you get together with friends for morning coffee, lunch, or after work? Do you belong to a group that paints, plays bridge, sings or dances. Do you have tennis, walking or golfing buddies?

Tell your friends that you want to pass the hat for Frank Bette Center the next time you get together. Keep it simple and fun!

Do tell them why you appreciate Frank Bette Center and want to support our survival. Hey! Invite me to share some Frank Bette stories.

A few dollars from lots of people will make all the difference in the world!

SAGA host Boundless Gratitude

Free! Open Mic, Poetry Reading, Storytelling, SAGA Music Circle, Beading Beauties, Body Painting Jam, Plein Air Sketch Group, Art of Perspective, Dramatic Readings and others.

Every month these core interactive programs enrich the lives of individuals of every age and circumstance.

No one is turned away for lack of money. Isn't that the way it should be? Especially now, when your friends are desperately stretching resources.

Joyful creative energy empowers life. Of course, it should be accessible to everyone!

Please give what you can. Thank you!

The seeds of creativity are in everyone of all ages and all walks of life.

The FBCA Artist Registry matches our member artists with the many opportunities to serve and grow with others in our community.

Art needs your support.

Each weekly edition of the "Support Our Survival" e-newsletter will be informative and perhaps entertaining. Your comments, ideas and questions are welcome.

How to Unleash Creativity!

Enlighten - Expose yourself to new ideas, materials, techniques and perspectives.

Challenge - Act on your curiosity and inspiration to experiment.

Grow - Commit to improving your skills, artistic voice and artwork.

Share - Share your creative journey and artwork with others.

Celebrate - Appreciate and embrace every step along your path as an accomplishment, from the first toe in the water to the pinnacle of the mountain.

Will Frank Bette Center Survive?

It is up to those who value the arts AND give financial support.

It doesn't matter how much you can give. What matters is how many people will give what they can.
