CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Holidays at The Frank Bette Center

Friday, November 26 thru Sunday December 18, 2021

Prospectus

Once again, the Frank Bette Center for the Arts will turn its galleries into a wonderland of art created by our talented artisans. We will be featuring jewelry, paper fiber arts, prints, ceramics/mosaics, wood, glass and framed two-dimensional art works 12"x12" or smaller. This year, we will also have a few surprises.

Application deadline: Thursday November 11

Selection notification by: Thursday November 18

Receiving day: Sunday November 21

Opening date and Evening Reception: Friday November 26 • 7-9

Reception: December 10 • 7-9pm

Closing date: Saturday December 18.

Art Pickup: Sunday December 19, 2021 or by agreement of the gallery.

- This year, each artist will be allocated a 3ft x 3ft space to display art.
- You may show one type of artwork or different types. For example, if you submit images of scarves, you may show only scarves. If you submit images of scarves, and jewelry, you may both types of art within the allotted space.
- Submit images via email of at least two (2) samples of the work you intend to sell to Holiday@frankbettecenter.org no later than November 11, 2021.
- All images should be labeled with: the artisan's name and price range of the items and description of materials used.
- You will be notified no later than Thursday November 18 if your art has been accepted. Note that space is at a premium so limits may be placed on the total number of similar items.
- Accepted work will be received into the gallery Sunday, November 21 from 11am-5pm. Please bring displays or display boxes for your art and be sure to label them with your name. A table-top holiday tree will be available to hang holiday ornaments.
- Please also bring completed inventory sheet and signed consignment agreement.
- If you are accepted, we may want to use one of your submitted images on marketing materials (show postcard & poster, email blast, website).
- A non-refundable entry fee is $10 for members or $15 for nonmembers. Consider joining the Frank Bette community ($65 annually) to receive the reduced fee.
- Artist commissions are 60% with the gallery handling taxes and transaction fees so price your art accordingly.

The FBCA reserves the right to turn down any work that it deems unacceptable or varies significantly from the images submitted.

All work must be hand crafted by the Artist. No kits, copies or commercially produced work will be considered.
