

Frank Bette

CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Prospectus: Alameda On Camera 2023

Event/Exhibit Calendar

January 15, 5 pm	Applications due
January 29, 5 pm	Late application deadline
January 31 – February 3	Selection committee reviews applications
February 6	FBCA notifies 48 selected artists
February 24, 7–9 pm	Launch party and map-piece drawing
February 24, 9 pm to February 26, 9 pm	48-hour photography event
March 12, 5 pm	Contact sheet(s) due
March 26, 11 am–5 pm	Receiving day. Artists bring pieces to FBCA
March 31, 6–8 pm	Artist-only exhibit opening and awards
April 14, 6–8 pm	Second Friday opening gala
May 12, 6–8 pm	Mid-show reception
May 27	Last day of exhibit, closes at 5 pm
May 28, 11 am–5 pm	Artists pick up unsold artwork at FBCA
May 29	$5/day storage fees begin for artwork left at FBCA
June 5	FCBA ships unsold artwork to out-of-town artists
June 28	FCBA mails commission for AOC artwork sales to artists
July 29	Unclaimed artwork will be considered abandoned and becomes the property of FBCA

Entry Instructions and Process

Images:

Submit images of three pieces of your original photo-based artwork. The images submitted with your application are not required to be of or about Alameda. Selection is based strictly on artistic merit.

Image Specifications

Please follow these specifications for submitting digital images.

- File Format: Save all images as JPEG
- Dimensions: Maximum 1200 pixels on the longest side
- File naming: Name each image file with your first initial and last name, the first two words of the title, and the entry number as listed on the application form.
- Please do not place a watermark on the images

Application Form:

The form is available at the Frank Bette Center for the Arts or on the website, www.frankbettecenter.org/alameda-on-camera.html. Please fill it out completely and legibly.

Fees:

A non-refundable entry fee is required with the application. The fee is $40 for applications submitted by January 15; the fee is $50 for entries submitted between January 16 and January 29. All entries must be received by January 29 at 5 pm.

- Applicants may pay the entry fee by cash, check (made payable to Frank Bette Center for the Arts), credit card, or on the FBCA website using PayPal.
- Fee may be paid in cash only at the Frank Bette Center; please do not mail cash.

Entries:

Application forms may be submitted electronically or as a printed document. Images must be submitted electronically, either by email in a .zip file or on a CD. All-electronic entry is preferred.

- .Zip file: Zip your images to make the email smaller. Name the .zip file with "AOC 2023" and your first and last name as entered on your application. Email your entry in a .zip format to AOC@frankbettecenter.org. CDs or .zip files must be received with a completed and signed application and entry fee no later than 5 pm, January 29. Please do not send links to file sharing websites such as Dropbox, Google Drive.
- CD: Label the CD with "AOC 2023" and your first and last name as entered on your application. Place the CD in a sturdy CD sleeve for protection and deliver to FBCA by post/UPS/FedEx or hand-delivery. The address is Frank Bette Center for the Arts, 1601 Paru St., Alameda, CA 94501.
- CDs and .zip files will be kept on file for reference and will not be returned to the artists.
- You may not be notified upon receipt of your application.

Quick check list for entries:

- Three images on a CD or in .zip file.
- Completed and signed application.
- Check/credit card for the entry fee. Payments may also be made on the FBCA web site using PayPal or in cash at the Center.

Notification of Selected Artists:

- Forty-eight artists will be selected from all of the applicants to participate in the 2023 Alameda On Camera February photography event and April through May exhibit.
- The 48 artists, plus 2 alternates, selected to participate will be notified by phone/email. Please be sure a valid email address and contact phone numbers are included on your application.
- The list of the 48 artists selected to participate will be posted on the FBCA website, <https://www.frankbettecenter.org/2023-alameda-on-camera.html>.

Selected Artists Are Required to Participate in the 48-Hour Photography Event:

- Attend the launch party 7–9 pm, Friday, February 24. Artists will be assigned a specific geographic area within the city limits of Alameda (determined by a lottery, randomly choosing a piece of an Alameda map). If you are unable to attend, you must send a proxy.
- Take photographic images ONLY within your assigned geographic area any time, and for any length of time, beginning 9 pm, Friday, February 24, until 9 pm, Sunday, February 26.
- Submit a contact sheet(s) or .zip file of all images made during the 48-hour photography event to the FBCA Gallery staff by 5 pm March 12. The contact sheet will be placed on file, as a reference document only, should there be any dispute regarding the qualification of the finished artwork submitted to the AOC exhibit.

- Use one or more, or a part of any, of the photographic images, or some element of the photographic process, obtained during the 48-hour photography event to create original photo-based artwork with any medium.

Selected Artists Are Required to Submit Artwork to the Alameda On Camera Exhibit:

- Deliver your artwork created with image(s) from the February event to Frank Bette Center for the Arts between 11 am and 5 pm on Sunday, March 26. If you cannot drop off your works on that day, make arrangements with the chairman to bring works in prior to the receiving day. Shipped entries must arrive prior to the receiving day.
- Each artist is guaranteed ONE piece of artwork will be displayed in the AOC exhibit.
- Artwork is counted by how it is sold. For example: A diptych sold as one piece is counted as one piece. A diptych available for sale as two separate pieces is counted as two pieces.
- Artists are encouraged to submit up to three pieces of artwork to the exhibit, but there is no guarantee that more than one piece will be exhibited. The selection of artwork is based on space available, how each artwork reflects the theme, and how the pieces show together to create the best exhibit possible. The Selection Committee's decision is final.
- Artwork must be professional quality and ready to display.
- Wall artwork must have secure D rings on each side of the back of the frame approx. 2" from the top of the frame.
- Standing artwork must be able to stand alone or be presented with a base enabling the artwork to securely stand alone.
- For framed artwork, Plexiglas is highly recommended, but not required. Glass is heavy and breakable; FBCA is not liable for broken glass or damage it may cause to your work.
- Unframed canvas edges must be artistically finished with no staples showing.

Artist Portfolio Statements and Web Images:

- Provide an artist statement with a photograph of yourself. Please briefly describe your experience of the 48-hour photography event, including your inspiration, creative process, technique, and materials specific to the artwork submitted to the Alameda On Camera exhibit.
- Provide a one-page artist bio/resume.
- Put the statement and resume into plastic sheet protectors to be placed in a 3-ring binder.
- We recommend that you provide a digital copy of your artwork to be included in an online slide show for the exhibit. Each image should be no more than 1200 pixels maximum on the longest side. Please do not place a watermark on the image.

Shipping:

- Shipped entries must arrive at FBCA prior to the receiving day.
- Shipped entries must be sent prepaid in appropriate reusable containers. COD entries will not be accepted.
- Do not use "peanut" Styrofoam as packing material.
- We prefer that you use Federal Express or UPS as your shipper.

- Include a prepaid return shipping and insurance form with your artwork. Otherwise, the artwork will not be returned. Do not send checks with your artwork to cover shipping costs.

Sales:

- All artwork must be available for sale at reasonable market prices.
- The artist authorizes FBCA to sell artwork for the retail price indicated on the inventory record filled out at the time of delivery of artwork.
- The artist will be paid 60% of sales (retail price less 40%). Payments will be sent by June 28.

Pick-Up and Return of Exhibited Artwork:

- Artists may not remove artwork from the exhibit prior to its closing at 5 pm on Saturday, May 27.
- Artists are to pick up unsold artwork on Sunday, May 28, between 11 am and 5 pm.
- Artists leaving their artwork at FBCA uncollected will be charged $5.00 per day for storage beginning Monday, until claimed or appropriate shipping materials and fees are provided.
- Artwork left beyond July 29 will be considered a donation and become the property of FBCA.
- FBCA will ship artwork by June 5 to those artists who provide appropriate shipping materials and fees.

Publicity Release & Liability Disclaimer:

- Application fees are non-refundable.
- Application to this competition does not guarantee inclusion in the event or the exhibit.
- Any artist not meeting any one of the requirements or deadlines for the 48-hour photography event or Alameda On Camera exhibit will be disqualified, forfeiting the right to participate.
- FBCA reserves the right to use applicants' submitted images, with appropriate acknowledgment, for purposes of publicity, education, and archival records.
- All reasonable care will be taken with artwork. FBCA, its officers, employees, volunteers, and representatives are not responsible for any loss or damage to exhibitors' artwork, however caused, and whether in transit or on display. FBCA does not carry loss insurance and strongly recommends participants carry their own loss insurance.

Volunteering:

The Frank Bette Center for the Arts depends on a committed group of dedicated member volunteers to fill a variety of positions and to participate in a wide range of activities and events vital to the successful operation of the Center. Please consider volunteering your time at the FBCA. See www.frankbettecenter.org/volunteer.html for details.

Entry into the "Alameda On Camera" event and exhibit constitutes agreement with all conditions of this prospectus.

Who to Contact:

Frank Bette Center for the Arts
1601 Paru St. Alameda, CA 94501
(510) 523-6957 AOC@frankbettecenter.org