
Frank Bette

CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Egrets and Herons at The Lodge

Monday, June 29 through Saturday Sept 5, 2020

Prospectus

This is a group exhibit at The Lodge, a Frank Bette Center for the Arts satellite gallery. The open group call for art theme is "Egrets and Herons". Egrets and Herons are some of the largest birds in North America, and they are found all around the Bay Area. If you need further definition please search Wikipedia, Google Images and other on-line resources for reference to Egrets and Herons. Artwork is limited to framed 2D photographs, paintings and sketches. Artists are encouraged to be creative and push their skills.

Notification of interest deadline by email: Tue June 23, 2020, mike.gifford01@frankbettecenter.org

Receiving day: Sunday June 28 at The Lodge from 2pm to 3pm

Opening date: Monday June 29 2020

Artist reception: Thursday July 9 2020

Closing date: Saturday Sept 5 2020

Art Pickup: Sunday Sept 6 2020 from 2pm to 3pm

The Lodge Location: 801 Island Drive, Alameda, CA 94502

Artwork will need to be labeled and marked according to FBCA standard exhibit requirements (artist name, title, price and piece number).

- A non-refundable entry fee of $20 is required and all exhibiting artist must be members of the Frank Bette Center for the Arts.
- Artist commissions are based on the FBCA standard of 60% with the gallery handling taxes and transaction fees so price your artwork accordingly.

The FBCA reserves the right to turn down any artwork that it deems unacceptable, does not adhere to the published exhibit theme, or varies significantly from the images submitted.

All work must be original pieces of work either SOOC or worked on with industry standard imaging editing tools such as Lightroom, Photoshop, Topaz Labs, ON1, etc. Compositions are also allowed.

All submitted artwork may not be accepted due to space and number of pieces.
FBCA reserves the right to select the final artwork to be exhibited.